MAMSI Names Recipient of Fifth Annual Spirit of Service Award

Rockville, Md. -- Mid Atlantic Medical Services, Inc. (MAMSI) (NYSE: MME), one of the Mid-Atlantic region's largest health services companies, awarded the fifth annual Spirit of Service Award to Jennifer Benevicz on June 28 at the Company's annual picnic. The Spirit of Service Award is presented annually to a MAMSI employee who, through ongoing humanitarian service or a single significant contribution, demonstrates outstanding charitable service to an organization or the community.

Ms. Benevicz is a paramedic with the Arundel Volunteer Fire Department. She has been a volunteer at Station Seven for nine years, providing both hands-on emergency care and behind-the-scenes operations and administrative support for the station. When she is not saving lives or helping to run the office, Ms. Benevicz teaches Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation and AED classes for the department. In addition, she serves on the board of directors and is the chairwoman of the Fundraising and Public Relations committees. Ms. Benevicz joined MAMSI in 2001, with HomeCall Pharmaceutical Services, Inc., as a Customer Service Representative.

"I am proud to count Jennifer among my colleagues at MAMSI," says Thomas P. Barbera, MAMSI President and CEO. "Her dedication to excellence, both on and off the job is commendable. I know that she has touched many lives, and I encourage her to continue her commendable work in the community."

Each year, a $1,000 charitable contribution is made on behalf the Spirit of Service Award recipient to the organization where he or she has volunteered. The grant, which is underwritten by the Company, will go to the Arundel Volunteer Fire Department this year. The Spirit of Service Award honoree is nominated by MAMSI employees and chosen by the Spirit of Service Award Committee, which is comprised of winners of the current year's Distinguished Service Award.

MAMSI is one of the mid-Atlantic region's largest health services companies with subsidiaries covering more than 1.9 million lives in Maryland, Washington, D.C., Virginia, Delaware, North Carolina, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.
